教育与学习	常用理由： 1. Develop critical thinking skills 2. Promote independent learning 3. Enhance cognitive abilities 4. Provide valuable feedback 5. Encourage active participation 常用原因： 1. Helps students to learn effectively 2. Prepares students for future challenges 常用结果： 1. Improves academic performance 2. Fosters lifelong learning	选择偏好型	Your university requires that you take a history course, and you have two options that fit your schedule. The first course is taught by a professor who is well-known for giving engaging lectures and includes class discussions. The second course is led by a professor who rarely lectures and instead encourages students to participate in discussions actively. Which course would you choose to fulfill your history requirement? Explain why.	I would choose the course led by the professor who encourages active participation. This teaching style allows students to engage deeply with the material, promoting critical thinking and better retention of information. Active discussions can also help me learn from different perspectives and improve my communication skills. Although engaging lectures are beneficial, I believe that active involvement in class discussions will provide a more enriching learning experience.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	Some people believe that young people spend excessive time on electronic devices and should try to use them less. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	I agree that young people spend excessive time on electronic devices and should use them less. Prolonged screen time can lead to health issues such as eye strain and poor posture. It can also negatively affect social skills and face-to-face interactions. For instance, I have noticed that spending too much time on my phone reduces the time I spend with family and friends. Reducing screen time can improve physical health and foster better relationships.
教育与学习	同上	选择偏好型	Some people prefer to read reviews written by critics before watching a movie. Other people prefer to watch the movie without reading reviews. Which way do you prefer and why?	I prefer to read reviews written by critics before watching a movie. Reviews can provide valuable insights about the plot, acting, and overall quality, helping me decide if the movie is worth my time and money. For example, I recently read reviews before watching a new release, and the positive feedback assured me it would be enjoyable. While some people enjoy the surprise of an uninformed viewing, I find that reviews enhance my movie-watching experience.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	Happiness comes from helping others rather than helping yourself. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	I agree that happiness comes from helping others rather than helping yourself. Acts of kindness and generosity create a sense of fulfillment and purpose. For example, volunteering at a local shelter made me feel connected to my community and gave me immense satisfaction. Helping others not only benefits them but also enhances our own well-being by fostering a sense of connection and gratitude. While self-care is important, altruism brings deeper, long-lasting happiness.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	Some people believe that students should be required to learn at least one foreign language in school. Others think that learning a foreign language should be optional. Which view do you agree with and why?	I believe that students should be required to learn at least one foreign language in school. Learning a foreign language enhances cognitive abilities, improves cultural understanding, and increases future career opportunities. For example, knowing a second language can make travel more enjoyable and open up job prospects in international companies. While optional language learning can reduce pressure on students, the benefits of bilingualism are too significant to be ignored.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	Some people think that reading the news every day is important to stay informed about current events. Others think it is not necessary to follow the news daily. Which view do you agree with and why?	I agree that reading the news every day is important to stay informed about current events. Staying updated with the news helps us understand what is happening around the world and make informed decisions. For instance, knowing about local and global issues allows us to participate in meaningful discussions and act responsibly. While it can be overwhelming at times, being well-informed is crucial for active citizenship.
教育与学习	同上	选择偏好型	Your university is planning to invite some guest speakers to give lectures to students. Some students think that the university should not invite guest speakers who have controversial opinions. Other students think that the university should invite various guest speakers, regardless of their opinions. Which point of view do you support and why?	I support inviting various guest speakers, regardless of their opinions. Exposure to different viewpoints encourages critical thinking and open-mindedness. For example, listening to diverse perspectives can help students form well-rounded opinions and understand complex issues. While controversial opinions may be challenging, they stimulate important discussions and debates, enhancing the educational experience. It's important to foster an environment where diverse ideas are heard and analyzed.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	Because most students have their own laptops, your university is considering closing the campus computer lab, where students use university-owned computers. Do you think this is a good idea and why?	I don't think closing the campus computer lab is a good idea. While many students have laptops, the computer lab provides essential resources for those who do not. It also offers specialized software and equipment that may not be available on personal devices. For example, graphic design students may rely on high-end computers for their projects. Maintaining the computer lab ensures that all students have equal access to necessary technology and resources.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	Some people believe the most important quality of a leader is being a gifted speaker. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion? Why?	I agree that being a gifted speaker is one of the most important qualities of a leader. Effective communication helps leaders to inspire and motivate their team, clearly convey their vision, and persuade others to follow their lead. For example, Martin Luther King Jr.'s powerful speeches were instrumental in advancing the civil rights movement. While other qualities like integrity and decisiveness are important, the ability to communicate effectively is crucial for leadership.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	Nowadays, more robots are performing work traditionally done by humans. Do you think this is a positive trend? Explain why or why not, using examples and details.	I think the increasing use of robots is a positive trend. Robots can perform repetitive and dangerous tasks more efficiently and safely than humans. For example, robots in manufacturing can assemble products with precision, reducing errors and increasing productivity. Additionally, automation can free up human workers to focus on more creative and complex tasks, leading to innovation and economic growth. While there are concerns about job displacement, the overall benefits of increased efficiency and safety are significant.

教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	People's social skills have declined as their use of technology has increased. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	I agree that people's social skills have declined as their use of technology has increased. Over-reliance on digital communication can reduce face-to-face interactions and weaken interpersonal skills. For example, people might prefer texting over having a conversation, leading to misunderstandings and a lack of genuine connection. While technology offers convenience, balancing it with in-person interactions is crucial for maintaining strong social skills.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	Your city is considering a proposal to require car owners to pay an additional fee if they drive cars that do not meet environmental standards set by the city for air pollution. Do you think this is a good idea? Explain why or why not.	I think this is a good idea. Requiring car owners to pay an additional fee for driving vehicles that do not meet environmental standards can incentivize people to switch to greener alternatives. For example, it can encourage the use of electric cars or public transportation, leading to reduced air pollution and improved public health. While it may be an inconvenience for some car owners, the long-term environmental benefits justify the proposal.
教育与学习	同上	同意/不同意型	When teaching children proper behavior, some parents think it is more effective to offer rewards when children behave well. Other parents think it is more effective to discipline their children when they misbehave. Which point of view do you agree with?	I believe that offering rewards when children behave well is more effective. Positive reinforcement encourages children to repeat good behavior and fosters a positive parent-child relationship. For example, praising a child for completing their homework on time can motivate them to continue doing so. While discipline is necessary in certain situations, consistently rewarding good behavior promotes a more constructive and supportive learning environment.
工作与职业	常用理由： 1. Work-life balance 2. Career development opportunities 3. Professional growth 4. Job stability 5. Creative and innovative solutions 常用原因： 1. Helps in personal and professional development 2. Increases job satisfaction 常用结果： 1. Enhances productivity 2. Promotes a healthy work environment	选择偏好型	Some people prefer to work in a company where they have the independence to complete tasks and offer solutions to problems on their own. Others prefer to work in an environment where they are told exactly what to do. Which work situation do you prefer? Explain why.	I prefer to work in a company where I have the independence to complete tasks and offer solutions. This autonomy allows me to be creative and innovative in my approach to problems. It also helps me develop my decision-making skills and boosts my confidence. Being able to work independently makes the job more fulfilling and prepares me for leadership roles in the future. While guidance is important, the freedom to make decisions is crucial for professional growth.
工作与职业	同上	选择偏好型	Some people prefer to have a job or profession that will allow them to work on a variety of different tasks each day. Others prefer having jobs with routine, predictable tasks that they work on every day. Which type of job would you prefer and why?	I prefer a job that allows me to work on a variety of different tasks each day. This variety keeps the work interesting and prevents boredom. It also provides opportunities to develop a wide range of skills and adapt to new challenges. For example, in my previous job, I enjoyed working on different projects because it kept me engaged and motivated. While routine tasks can provide stability, I find that variety leads to personal and professional growth.
工作与职业	同上	选择偏好型	Some people prefer to work in a team. Others prefer to work independently. Which do you prefer and why?	I prefer to work in a team because collaboration brings diverse perspectives and ideas, leading to more innovative solutions. Working with others also enhances my communication and teamwork skills. For example, in my previous job, team projects often resulted in better outcomes because we could combine our strengths and support each other. While working independently has its benefits, teamwork fosters creativity and ensures a well-rounded approach to problem-solving.
工作与职业	同上	选择偏好型	Imagine you have been offered two jobs in the same field with similar salaries and benefits. One is with a large, well-established company with a good reputation. The other is with a small start-up company that has just begun. Which job would you choose, and why?	I would choose the job with the large, well-established company with a good reputation. A well-established company offers more stability, structured career development, and extensive resources. For example, they are likely to have well-defined training programs and opportunities for advancement. While a start-up may offer more flexibility and innovation, the stability and professional growth opportunities in a large company are more appealing to me at this stage of my career.
工作与职业	同上	同意/不同意型	Some people think that news stories about the personal lives of famous actors and musicians are not worth reporting as news. Other people think such stories help these people become more real and relatable. Do you think these news stories are beneficial or not? Explain why.	I think news stories about the personal lives of famous actors and musicians are not worth reporting as news. These stories often distract from more important issues and contribute to the invasion of privacy. For example, focusing on celebrities' personal lives can overshadow critical news about political or environmental matters. While some argue that it makes celebrities more relatable, I believe that news should prioritize information that has a significant impact on society.
工作与职业	同上	描述经历型	Some people believe that the most important quality of a leader is being a gifted speaker. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion? Why?	I agree that being a gifted speaker is one of the most important qualities of a leader. Effective communication helps leaders to inspire and motivate their team, clearly convey their vision, and persuade others to follow their lead. For example, Martin Luther King Jr.'s powerful speeches were instrumental in advancing the civil rights movement. While other qualities like integrity and decisiveness are important, the ability to communicate effectively is crucial for leadership.
社会与文化	常用理由： 1. Enhance cultural understanding 2. Promote social skills 3. Increase global awareness 4. Encourage face-to-face interactions 5. Foster community engagement 常用原因： 1. Helps in personal growth 2. Broadens perspectives 常用结果：	选择偏好型	Many people like to watch movies that are exciting and entertaining. Others prefer to watch movies that make them think or carry important messages of society. What kind of film do you prefer and why?	I prefer to watch movies that make me think and carry important societal messages. These films not only entertain me but also broaden my understanding of different issues. For example, watching documentaries about climate change has deepened my awareness of environmental problems and inspired me to adopt eco-friendly habits. While entertaining movies are enjoyable, thought-provoking films provide valuable insights and can inspire positive change in society.

	 1. Creates meaningful connections 2. Promotes empathy and understanding
社会与文化	同上	选择偏好型	Some people enjoy giving gifts, while others enjoy receiving them. Which do you prefer? Explain why, using details and examples.	I prefer giving gifts because it brings me joy to make others happy. When I see the excitement and gratitude on someone's face, it gives me a sense of fulfillment. For instance, last year, I gave my best friend a personalized photo album, and her reaction was priceless. Giving gifts also allows me to express my love and appreciation for the people in my life. While receiving gifts is nice, the happiness of giving is more rewarding.
社会与文化	同上	选择偏好型	Some people prefer to visit museums that allow photography. Some people like to take photographs of the exhibits and share them. Others prefer to simply look at the exhibits and avoid taking photographs. Which do you prefer?	I prefer to visit museums that allow photography because taking photos helps me capture and remember the experience. I enjoy sharing these photos with friends and family, which can also spark interesting conversations about the exhibits. For example, during my last museum visit, I took several pictures and later used them to recall and reflect on the exhibits. While simply looking at exhibits is also enjoyable, photography enhances my museum experience.
社会与文化	同上	同意/不同意型	People should spend time reading the news every day in order to know what is happening in other countries around the world. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	I agree that people should spend time reading the news every day to stay informed about global events. Being aware of international news helps us understand different cultures, economies, and political situations. For example, knowing about global health issues like the COVID-19 pandemic enables us to take necessary precautions and make informed decisions. Staying informed fosters a sense of global citizenship and promotes empathy and awareness of worldwide issues.
社会与文化	同上	同意/不同意型	People's social skills have declined as their use of technology has increased. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	I agree that people's social skills have declined as their use of technology has increased. Over-reliance on digital communication can reduce face-to-face interactions and weaken interpersonal skills. For example, people might prefer texting over having a conversation, leading to misunderstandings and a lack of genuine connection. While technology offers convenience, balancing it with in-person interactions is crucial for maintaining strong social skills.
社会与文化	同上	选择偏好型	Some people believe old people should not take risks and participate in adventurous activities. Young people think old people should try new things and take risks. Which view do you agree with and why?	I agree that old people should try new things and take risks. Engaging in new activities can enhance their quality of life and keep them mentally and physically active. For example, my grandmother started hiking at the age of 70 and it greatly improved her health and happiness. While it's important to consider health limitations, taking reasonable risks can lead to fulfilling and enriching experiences for older adults.
生活与健康	常用理由: 1. Improve physical health 2. Enhance mental well-being 3. Promote a healthy lifestyle 4. Reduce stress and anxiety 5. Foster a sense of fulfillment 常用原因: 1. Helps in personal development 2. Increases happiness 常用结果: 1. Improves overall well-being 2. Creates a balanced lifestyle	选择偏好型	Some people prefer to be constantly busy and always have something to do. Others prefer to spend some of their time being relaxed and sometimes feel like doing nothing. Which do you think is better? Explain why.	I believe it is better to have a balance between being busy and having time to relax. Constant busyness can lead to burnout and stress, while regular relaxation can improve mental health and overall well-being. For example, I find that taking breaks and spending time on hobbies helps me to recharge and be more productive when I return to work. A balanced approach ensures that we maintain our physical and mental health while achieving our goals.
生活与健康	同上	选择偏好型	Imagine there are two places to choose to be your home. One is a noisy place but is close to restaurants, shopping centers, and public transportation; the other one is a quiet place which is far from these things. Which would you like to choose?	I would choose the quiet place which is far from restaurants, shopping centers, and public transportation. A peaceful environment is essential for my well-being and productivity. For example, living in a quiet area allows me to concentrate better on my work and enjoy a tranquil lifestyle. While convenience is important, the benefits of a quiet and calm environment outweigh the advantages of living close to amenities.
生活与健康	同上	选择偏好型	Previous generations spent time playing board games or card games with family and friends. Nowadays, many young people prefer to play games on computers or smartphones. Which do you think is better and why?	I believe playing board games or card games with family and friends is better. These games promote face-to-face interaction and strengthen relationships. For example, playing a board game with my family creates memorable bonding experiences and fosters teamwork. While digital games offer convenience and a variety of options, traditional games encourage social engagement and improve communication skills, making them more beneficial for personal relationships.
生活与健康	同上	同意/不同意型	Your city is considering a proposal to require car owners to pay an additional fee if they drive cars that do not meet environmental standards set by the city for air pollution. While it may be an inconvenience for some car owners, the long-term environmental benefits justify the proposal.
生活与健康	同上	选择偏好型	Your university is planning to build a new state-of-the-art sports center, including a new stadium and gym. However, in order to pay for it, the university will need to increase the additional amount of students' tuition. Do you think the university should build the new sports center? Explain why or why not.	I think the university should build the new sports center. A state-of-the-art facility can enhance student life by providing more opportunities for physical activity, promoting health and well-being. For example, improved sports facilities can encourage more students to participate in sports and fitness activities. While the tuition increase is a concern, the long-term benefits of better health and a more vibrant campus community outweigh the costs.
生活与健康	同上	选择偏好型	Some people enjoy giving gifts, while others enjoy receiving them. Which do you prefer? Explain why, using details and examples.	I prefer giving gifts because it brings me joy to make others happy. When I see the excitement and gratitude on someone's face, it gives me a sense of fulfillment. 科技与环境	常用理由： 1. Reduce environmental impact 2. Promote sustainable practices 3. Encourage the use of technology 4. Balance technology and human interaction 5. Enhance efficiency and productivity 常用原因： 1. Helps in protecting the environment 2. Increases overall efficiency 常用结果： 1. Creates a better future 2. Promotes long-term sustainability	同意/不同意型	Some people think that parents should help children solve their problems. Others think that children should learn to solve problems on their own. Which point of view do you agree with? Explain why, using details and examples.	I believe that children should learn to solve problems on their own. This helps them develop critical thinking and independence. When children tackle issues themselves, they learn from their mistakes and become more confident. For example, if a child figures out how to fix a broken toy, they not only learn about problem-solving but also gain a sense of accomplishment. While parental guidance is important, fostering independence prepares children for adult life.
科技与环境	同上	选择偏好型	Many people prefer to read books in an electronic format on a computer or other device. Other people prefer to read paper copies of books. Which type of book do you prefer to read? Explain why.	I prefer to read paper copies of books because they provide a more tactile and immersive reading experience. Holding a physical book and turning its pages gives me a sense of satisfaction and helps me to focus better without digital distractions. Additionally, reading paper books reduces eye strain, which is often caused by looking at screens for long periods. While electronic books are convenient, I find that paper books offer a more enjoyable reading experience.
科技与环境	同上	同意/不同意型	Some people believe that young people spend excessive time on electronic devices and should try to use them less. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	I agree that young people spend excessive time on electronic devices and should use them less. Prolonged screen time can lead to health issues such as eye strain and poor posture. It can also negatively affect social skills and face-to-face interactions. For instance, I have noticed that spending too much time on my phone reduces the time I spend with family and friends. Reducing screen time can improve physical health and foster better relationships.

Therefore, the large company is a better choice.	17
工作与职业	Some people think that news stories about the personal lives of famous actors and musicians are not worth reporting as news. Other people think such stories help these people become more real and relatable. Do you think these news stories are beneficial or not? Explain why.	同意/不同意型	I think news stories about the personal lives of famous actors and musicians are not worth reporting as news. Firstly, these stories often distract from more important issues and contribute to the invasion of privacy. For example, focusing on celebrities' personal lives can overshadow critical news about political or environmental matters. While some argue that it makes celebrities more relatable, I believe that news should prioritize information that has a significant impact on society. Therefore, such stories are not beneficial.	18
工作与职业	Some people believe that the most important quality of a leader is being a gifted speaker. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion? Why?	同意/不同意型	I agree that being a gifted speaker is one of the most important qualities of a leader. Firstly, effective communication helps leaders to inspire and motivate their team, clearly convey their vision, and persuade others to follow their lead. For example, Martin Luther King Jr.'s powerful speeches were instrumental in advancing the civil rights movement. While other qualities like integrity and decisiveness are important, the ability to communicate effectively is crucial for leadership. Therefore, being a gifted speaker is essential.	19
社会与文化	Many people like to watch movies that are exciting and entertaining. Others prefer to watch movies that make them think or carry important messages of society. What kind of film do you prefer and why?	选择偏好型	I prefer to watch movies that make me think and carry important societal messages. Firstly, these films not only entertain me but also broaden my understanding of different issues. For example, watching documentaries about climate change has deepened my awareness of environmental problems and inspired me to adopt eco-friendly habits. While entertaining movies are enjoyable, thought-provoking films provide valuable insights and can inspire positive change in society. Therefore, I prefer thought-provoking films.	20
社会与文化	Some people enjoy giving gifts, while others enjoy receiving them. Which do you prefer? Explain why, using details and examples.	选择偏好型	I prefer giving gifts because it brings me joy to make others happy. Firstly, when I see the excitement and gratitude on someone's face, it gives me a sense of fulfillment. For instance, last year, I gave my best friend a personalized photo album, and her reaction was priceless. Additionally, giving gifts allows me to express my love and appreciation for the people in my life. While receiving gifts is nice, the happiness of giving is more rewarding. Therefore, I enjoy giving gifts more.	21
社会与文化	Some people prefer to visit museums that allow photography. Some people like to take photographs of the exhibits and share them. Others prefer to simply look at the exhibits and avoid taking photographs. Which do you prefer?	选择偏好型	I prefer to visit museums that allow photography because taking photos helps me capture and remember the experience. Firstly, I enjoy sharing these photos with friends and family, which can also spark interesting conversations about the exhibits. For example, during my last museum visit, I took several pictures and later used them to recall and reflect on the exhibits. While simply looking at exhibits is also enjoyable, photography enhances my museum experience. Therefore, I prefer museums that allow photography.	22
社会与文化	People should spend time reading the news every day in order to know what is happening in other countries around the world. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	同意/不同意型	I agree that people should spend time reading the news every day to stay informed about global events. Firstly, being aware of international news helps us understand different cultures, economies, and political situations. For example, knowing about global health issues like the COVID-19 pandemic enables us to take necessary precautions and make informed decisions. Staying informed fosters a sense of global citizenship and promotes empathy and awareness of worldwide issues. Therefore, reading the news daily is beneficial.	23
社会与文化	People's social skills have declined as their use of technology has increased. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	同意/不同意型	I agree that people's social skills have declined as their use of technology has increased. Firstly, over-reliance on digital communication can reduce face-to-face interactions and weaken interpersonal skills. For example, people might prefer texting over having a conversation, leading to misunderstandings and a lack of genuine connection. While	24 technology offers convenience, balancing it with in-person interactions is crucial for maintaining strong social skills. Therefore, the decline in social skills due to technology is concerning.

社会与文化	Some people believe old people should not take risks and participate in adventurous activities. Young people think old people should try new things and take risks. Which view do you agree with and why?	同意/不同意型	I agree that old people should try new things and take risks. Firstly, engaging in new activities can enhance their quality of life and keep them mentally and physically active. For example, my grandmother started hiking at the age of 70 and it greatly improved her health and happiness. While it's important to consider health limitations, taking reasonable risks can lead to fulfilling and enriching experiences for older adults. Therefore, trying new things is beneficial for the elderly.	25
生活与健康	Some people prefer to be constantly busy and always have something to do. Others prefer to spend some of their time being relaxed and sometimes feel like doing nothing. Which do you think is better? Explain why.	选择偏好型	I believe it is better to have a balance between being busy and having time to relax. Firstly, constant busyness can lead to burnout and stress, while regular relaxation can improve mental health and overall well-being. For example, I find that taking breaks and spending time on hobbies helps me to recharge and be more productive when I return to work. A balanced approach ensures that we maintain our physical and mental health while achieving our goals. Therefore, balance is key.	26
生活与健康	Imagine there are two places to choose to be your home. One is a noisy place but is close to restaurants, shopping centers, and public transportation; the other is a quiet place which is far from these things. Which would you like to choose?	选择偏好型	I would choose the quiet place which is far from restaurants, shopping centers, and public transportation. Firstly, a peaceful environment is essential for my well-being and productivity. For example, living in a quiet area allows me to concentrate better on my work and enjoy a tranquil lifestyle. While convenience is important, the benefits of a quiet and calm environment outweigh the advantages of living close to amenities. Therefore, the quiet place is preferable.	27
生活与健康	Previous generations spent time playing board games or card games with family and friends. Nowadays, many young people prefer to play games on computers or smartphones. Which do you think is better and why?	选择偏好型	I believe playing board games or card games with family and friends is better. Firstly, these games promote face-to-face interaction and strengthen relationships. For example, playing a board game with my family creates memorable bonding experiences and fosters teamwork. While digital games offer convenience and a variety of options, traditional games encourage social engagement and improve communication skills, making them more beneficial for personal relationships. Therefore, traditional games are better.	28
生活与健康	Your city is considering a proposal to require car owners to pay an additional fee if they drive cars that do not meet environmental standards set by the city for air pollution. Do you think this is a good idea? Explain why or why not.	同意/不同意型	I think this is a good idea. Firstly, requiring car owners to pay an additional fee for driving vehicles that do not meet environmental standards can incentivize people to switch to greener alternatives. For example, it can encourage the use of electric cars or public transportation, leading to reduced air pollution and improved public health. While it may be an inconvenience for some car owners, the long-term environmental benefits justify the proposal. Therefore, the proposal is beneficial.	29
生活与健康	Your university is planning to build a new state-of-the-art sports center, including a new stadium and gym. However, in order to pay for it, the university will need to increase the additional amount of students' tuition. Do you think the university should build the new sports center? Explain why or why not.	同意/不同意型	I think the university should build the new sports center. Firstly, a state-of-the-art facility can enhance student life by providing more opportunities for physical activity, promoting health and well-being. For example, improved sports facilities can encourage more students to participate in sports and fitness activities. While the tuition increase is a concern, the long-term benefits of better health and a more vibrant campus community outweigh the costs. Therefore, the sports center is a good investment.	30
生活与健康	Some people enjoy giving gifts, while others enjoy receiving them. Which do you prefer? Explain why, using details and examples.	选择偏好型	I prefer giving gifts because it brings me joy to make others happy. Firstly, when I see the excitement and gratitude on someone's face, it gives me a sense of fulfillment. For instance, last year, I gave my best friend a personalized photo album, and her reaction was priceless. Additionally, giving gifts allows me to express my love and appreciation for the people in my life. While receiving gifts is nice, the happiness of giving is more rewarding. Therefore, I enjoy giving gifts more.	31
科技与环境	Some people think that parents should help children solve their problems. Others think that children should learn to solve problems on their own. Which point of view do you agree with? Explain why, using details and examples.	同意/不同意型	I believe that children should learn to solve problems on their own. Firstly, this helps them develop critical thinking and independence. For example, when children tackle issues themselves, they learn from their mistakes and become more confident. If a child figures out how to fix a broken toy, they not only learn about problem-solving but also gain a sense of accomplishment. While parental guidance is important, fostering independence prepares children for adult life. Therefore, children solving their own problems is beneficial.	32
科技与环境	Many people prefer to read books in an electronic format on a computer or other device. Other people prefer to read paper copies of books. Which type of book do you prefer to read? Explain why.	选择偏好型	I prefer to read paper copies of books because they provide a more tactile and immersive reading experience. Firstly, holding a physical book and turning its pages gives me a sense of satisfaction and helps me to focus better without digital distractions. Additionally, reading paper books reduces eye strain, which is often caused by looking at screens for long periods. While electronic books are convenient, I find that paper books offer a more enjoyable reading experience. Therefore, I prefer paper books.	33
科技与环境	Some people believe that young people spend excessive time on electronic devices and should try to use them less. Do you agree or disagree with this opinion, and why?	同意/不同意型	I agree that young people spend excessive time on electronic devices and should use them less. Firstly, prolonged screen time can lead to health issues such as eye strain and poor posture. Additionally, it can negatively affect social skills and face-to-face interactions. For instance, I have noticed that spending too much time on my phone reduces the time I spend with family and friends. Therefore, reducing screen time can improve physical health and foster better relationships.	34
科技与环境	Some people prefer to read reviews written by critics before watching a movie. Other people prefer to watch the movie without reading reviews. Which way do you prefer and why?	选择偏好型	I prefer to read reviews written by critics before watching a movie. Firstly, reviews can provide valuable insights about the plot, acting, and overall quality, helping me decide if the movie is worth my time and money. For example, I recently read reviews before watching a new release, and the positive feedback assured me it would be enjoyable. While some people enjoy the surprise of an uninformed viewing, I find that reviews enhance my movie-watching experience. Therefore, reading reviews is beneficial.	35
